HENRI

Inès No.1

Introducing the Inès Collection, a homage to the artistry of late 19th-century Lalique perfume vessels and Diego Giacometti's bespoke floral wall brackets for Guerlain, circa 1930s. This series embraces a serene romanticism with ornate detailing resulting in an object that is both minimal yet opulent.

Each piece celebrates the beauty found in architectural relics, fragments, and timeworn vessels. With a simplicity of form and richness of texture, the intertwining petals create a sculptural composition that delicately holds and radiates light.
