The Julien Collection is a study in proportion — bold, grounded, and refined. Drawing from the monumental forms of Lachaise and Botero, and shaped by the compositional clarity of Modernist and Bauhaus ideals, each piece balances fullness with restraint. The silhouette is sculptural yet disciplined, offering a quiet tension between volume and line. In parchment glaze, the surface reveals a soft craquelure — an imprint of fire and time. In amber black, the form deepens, absorbing light into its curvature. Whether mounted or standing, Julien carries its weight with poise — composed, present, and enduring.
